Dear Sirs : -

Could I see the coin on which I bid I could probably make much higher bids, but the last purchase was rather unsatisfactory, and I am using all care to avoid paying more than I wish for any piece - risking the loss of a coin I might need in my business, rather than be compelled to sell at a loss, as I did with previous purchase.

Several Los Angeles collectors buy of Mr. Low and the question has been asked me ; Do you charge highest price bid, or do you buy at an advance over next highest bidder, as is the rule in N. Y? For example - suppose I bid 90¢ on a coin, the highest bid excepting mine is 55¢ - Would you buy for me at 60¢, or would you charge me 90¢; the price I bid, even though you could have purchased for a less amount ?

Yours truly

J. Milnor Brown.

I would like 8 or 10 U.S. Quarter Eagles, if they can be bought at

Please quote me prices on $5. 1795 -- $10. 1795-7-9 or 1800, also on $1. and $3. pieces.

What I want is cheap, showy coin, for young collectors - I can use some smaller pieces, as well as crown size. I rely on your good judgment, to send me some desirable coin, and be sure to give me a Discount of 10%, as I wish to sell many pieces from your bill, at your prices, and the discount will be my only profit.

Two weeks will be as long as I care to hold the coin.

The prices marked above, for some of the coin, are what I have been paying, and if you cannot sell at such, please leave out the money so priced. Send to 307 North Main St. Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Sir:-

Enclosed please find list of coin sold from invoice of 2-16-05, amounting to $140.95 Less $14.09 discount, and amount forwarded by check, $56.66, leaves a balance due you of $70.✓16, which amount, please find enclosed.

I fear that I cannot sell many of the coins sent me 3-12-05, There seems no demand whatever for coin of Papal States.

The circulated Fractional Currency sold at once, and I could use about $10.00 more (Face Value) if I had it. You evidently did not charge me enough for item 101-2-1602 $1 bills, as $2.00 is only face value, please let me know correct price .

I can sell a few English Nobles or any English gold, if I can get it at a low figure, Also cheap old English silver. You did not give me price of Kruger coin, kindly oblige me by so doing, especially 2 1/2 and 5 shilling pieces.

Dear Sirs : -

Enclosed please find List of coin sold and $110.85 in payment for them. They were a very fine lot and just what I wanted. I was disappointed that the Pawn-broker did not buy more of them, but he is buying to make a show of them and as a collector, and so wants only those he thinks he can sell again at a profit. I sold him from your list prices, making simply the discount, I might have sold a few more to others, but not enough, I thought, to warrant my keeping the coins any longer.

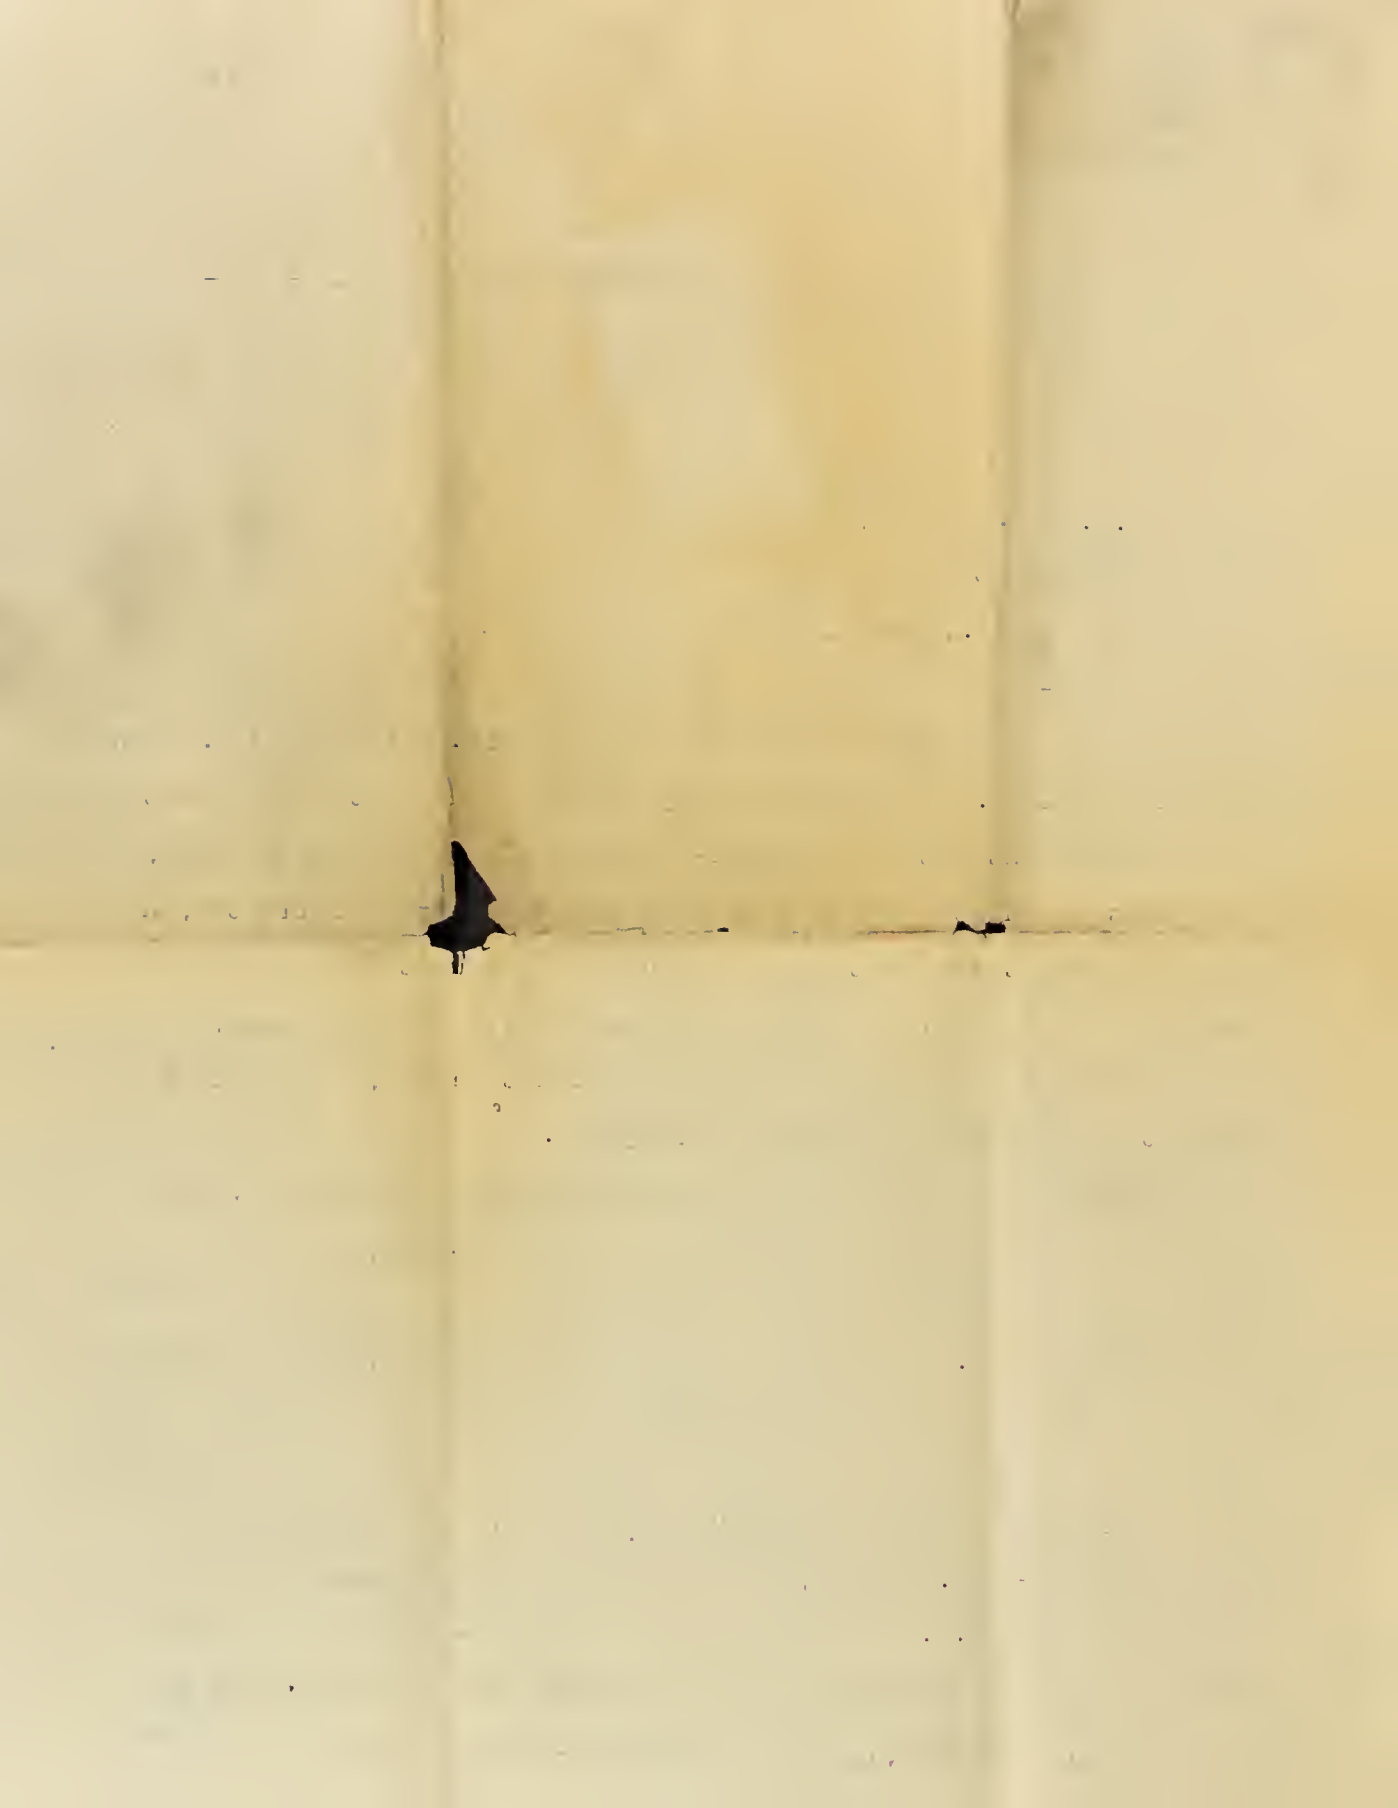

Thanking you for your fine and well assorted selection, I am,

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs : -

Enclosed please find One Dollar, for which kindly send me a Priced Catalogue of the J.G.Mills sale of April 27 - 28 and 29. Thank you very much for sending me a catalogue of this sale, but the coin were of too fine a class for my customers, and it would have been useless to make any such bids as I could afford .

My business grew so distressingly quiet that I accepted a place in the Court House, and left my coin sales to the clerk, and as a consequence business improves none at all. Within four months I have lost six of my best customers - one died, three moved from this part of the country, and two gave up collecting entirely, and sold me their collections, so you can understand that I had to get other work to help pay expenses until the hoped for improvement in trade comes this way. I know of nothing in the way of coin that I can sell at present, except U.S. Dollars 1795 to 1805, inclusive. Any of those that you could send me at about $2. would be acceptable. Regretting that I cannot send you a large order. I remain,

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs : -

Your package of coin, forwarded to me 5mo 31st, was rec. 5mo 10th, and the assortment was excellent, and prices reasonable, but as I wrote you my business is very quiet, and in order to sell the few pieces that I did I was compelled to take the coin to several parties and dispose of them at your figures, my only profit being the discount you allowed me.

Priced Catalogue has not yet reached me, but letter stating you have sent it is at hand. I deferred sending this Pkg for a few days, hoping you would send some U.S. Dols, and I could remit for them with the Coin. About what are good 1795-to-1805 U.S. Dols worth, Net? What are your charges for selling coin at auction?

Regretting that I could not do better with this lot, I am,
